Supervisor T. F. Dwyer presented the following:

Hercules Charles D. Mead has given information that there are now unrecorded some four hundred and six bills of estate, general and particular, which have been rendered of debts, and materially tending to retard the official business of the Surrogate's Department, as well as being detrimental to the public interest; therefore,

Resolved, That it be referred to the Committee on Civil Contracts to confer with the Surrogate's Department, with a view of providing for the correction of the evil alleged to exist.

Which was adopted.

REPORTS.

The Special Committee on Civil, to whom was referred the annexed bills of J. T. Hartman & Sons, for coal and wood for heating the County, respectively.

The following is therefore submitted:

Resolved, That the bills of J. T. Hartman & Sons, for coal and wood furnished the Courts and offices of the County, be paid, and to be rendered at forty dollars per thousand cubic feet, and to be rendered to the County Clerks in which the same are rendered.

And there seems to be nothing to the County to which the same would justly pay off any services beyond the per diem or lawless amount.

Your Committee, however, as before stated, concluded that the bills be rendered, as follows:

That all those bills be rendered, and the proper amount be paid, and the same be rendered, under the head of "Census," 1865, for the payment of the same.

2. Resolved, That the Committee, and he is hereby directed to render a report in favor of the parties hereinfor mentioned for the amounts respectively stated in the column headed "Amount allowed, including all expenses," and charge the same to the appropriation for "Census, 1865."

Amount allowed, including all expenses.

Amount allowed, including all expenses.
